

Parents' evenings are worthwhile – to this knowledge came the organizers as well as the participant parents who had appeared in the 6/9/2010 in the rooms of VHS (people high school) Bielefeld.

It was the second this kind which has organised the inc. YES in cooperation with IfB (Initiative for employment)-OWL.

In this evening the parents could not complain of low input. Mr. Lippa (IfB-OWL) as well as Mr. Brenecke (REGE – youth centre) got with their talks the persons present a detailed overview about the educational system in Germany.

Many parents were also prepared with concrete questions which the advisers, on account of the complexity of the educational system, with a lot of patience had to handle with it.

Thus questions have appeared as for example:

- ❖ why learning-weak children are not promoted early individually
- ❖ why work preparatory measures do not take place for learning-weak children earlier
- ❖ why the integration of immigrated children is promoted in the control classes not enough
- ❖ why the parents of the immigrated youngsters who are not still of school-age their children though any more vocational school-age, however accompany individually better
- ❖ why the parents (low breadwinner) need one intensive and individual tutoring for their children, does not support financially
- ❖ why êzîdîs pupils, while their school-friends(classmates) perceive their religious lessons, not with positive aspects of the êzîdîs religion which they contain many society-compliant values, trusted made
- ❖ which possibilities one has if one does not agree with the recommendation of the school which is for the career of the child of essential meaning

These and farther questions found at the latest with the final discussion group their answers.

The cooperation partners thank all participants and hope for your participation also in the next event.
